

Funeral Assistance Plan

Supporting your Church

Minimise the effects of loss for your loved ones

Receive our booklet, Guide to Funerals which you can personalise with your requests for the funeral arrangements and other information for your executors.

Interest earned is exempt from Deeming and Income Tax provisions (subject to limits imposed by the Social Security Act 1991) as funds are only released to cover funeral expenses or paid to your estate.

Release of funds

- Your executor sends the Funeral Director's account to Centenary Development Foundation for payment up to the balance of your account.
- Any funds remaining will form part of your estate.

Setting up your FAP

Funeral Assistance Plans are to be opened in individual names[#].

You may wish to open your Funeral Assistance Plan with a lump sum or build it up over time.

Want to save the easy way? Then EASY SAVE is for you

If you want to increase the amount in your FAP regularly we can set up an automatic transfer of funds from your nominated linked bank account. If you want to deposit amounts occasionally, we can transfer funds overnight if you contact us by 3pm*.

Internet banking

You can make deposits using your Internet Banking. Contact our staff for bank details and reference requirements.

Post & Over the counter

Mail cheques made payable to Centenary Development Foundation to our PO Box or call in to our Kenmore office during business hours.

Terms and conditions

- *A Direct Debit Request (DDR) form must be completed before CDF can transfer funds from an external bank account to CDF (including EASY SAVE).
- [#]No joint accounts

A Ministry of Churches of Christ in Queensland

All investments will be administered by the Centenary Development Foundation (CDF) which operates as a ministry of Churches of Christ in Queensland of 41 Brookfield Road Kenmore QLD 4069. Churches of Christ in Queensland is a body corporate under Letters Patent issued under the Religious, Educational and Charitable Institutions Act 1861 to 1959. CDF is a Religious Charitable Development Fund that operates under Banking Exemption No.1 of 2011 to the Banking Act 1959.

Investors should be aware that Centenary Development Foundation (CDF) is not subject to the normal requirement to have a Disclosure Document or Product Disclosure Statement and be registered or have a trust deed under the Corporations Act. This scheme has not been examined or approved by ASIC and the investment is designed for those who wish to promote the charitable work of Churches of Christ in Queensland and for whom the considerations of profit are not of primary relevance in their investment decisions. However, such investments are not specifically secured but repayment is underwritten by the overall funds & assets of Churches of Christ in Queensland.

Furthermore neither Churches of Christ in Queensland nor Centenary Development Foundation are prudentially supervised by the Australian Prudential Regulation Authority (APRA) and contributions to the fund do not obtain the benefit of the depositor protection provisions of the Banking Act 1959.
